

Special Event: Ending impunity for gender-related killing of women and girls/femicide – State responsibility and accountability
27th session of the CCPCJ

May 16, 2018, Vienna International Centre (VIC), Press room, 1.30 – 3.00 pm practices and effective strategies.

This event seeks to encourage Member States to strengthen their crime and criminal justice responses, when prosecuting cases of gender motivated killings of women. The event should promote the role of international law and available international instruments in holding individual states accountable for failing to prosecute cases of such kind. It should remind Member States, UN agencies, academia, victims' representatives, civil society and other relevant bodies to have greater cooperation with each other, in order to exchange good

Introductory remarks

Nuno Maria Roque Jorge, President OFAP

Chair

Karl Prummer, Minister-Councillor, Permanent Mission of Austria to the UN

Panellists

H.E. Jean-Louis Falconi, Ambassador, Permanent Representative of France to the UN

Dubravka Šimonović, UN Special Rapporteur on VAW, its causes and consequences

Tiziana Zannini, Executive at the Department for Family Policies, Italian Presidency of the Council of Ministers

Angela Me, Chief Research and Trend Analysis Branch, UNODC

Lillian Hofmeister, Member of the Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination against Women and former judge

Myrna Dawson, Professor, University of Guelph, & Director, Canadian Femicide Observatory for Justice and Accountability

Marceline Naudi, First Vice-President of GREVIO & Scientific Director European Femicide Observatory

Henrike Landré, Co-Chair, UN Studies Association & Manager Femicide Knowledge Hub

Registration: For those who do not have a UN Ground Pass, please send an email before the 9th of May 2018 to register.acuns@gmail.com with the following mandatory information: Title: Mr. or Mrs.; First Name; Last Name; Date of birth; Type of ID; ID number; Issuing Country; Affiliation.

